

The Delgados, All You Need Is Hate

This was how I broke the best
Indifference, overblown with confidence and ignorance
It all made sense
And then I watched them take the test
I believe its better to inflict than to attempt relief
You ask me what you need
Hate is all you need
Hate is all around find it in your heart in every waking sound
On your way to school, work or church youll find that its the only rule
Build a different world, hate will help you find what youve been looking for Hate is everywhere, inside your mothers heart and you will find it there
You ask me what you need hate is all you need
This was how I won the west
Charity, a joke that friendly cities think that we believe
Or so it seems
We kicked and punched and stabbed to death
And everyone applauded my fine actions I was overcome
You ask me what Ive seen
Hate is all Ive seen
Hate is in the air
Come on people feel it like you just dont care
Everlasting hate feel it in the people where its warm and great
Come on hate yourself everyone here does so just enjoy yourself
Hate is everywhere, look inside your heart and you will find it there
You ask me what I mean
Hate is all I mean
