

The Delgados, If This Is A Plan

Make it better
Anyway way just to make it feel better
By the way Ive been eating the hearts again
Now I know youre not worth it
I had time but refused to discuss it
Anyway I wouldnt know where to begin
Well if this is a plan then Im dead where I stand
Ive been cursing the truth like Im cursing my youth
But I know what its like to seem wrong when youre right
Halleluiah Im down and its finally happening
You look older
You look harder and tired and colder
Is this what ten years with a dickhead can bring
Least we know were not worth it
But you know you could try to return it
All I said was you looked like you needed a friend
Well if this is a plan then Im dead where I stand
Ive been cursing the truth like Im cursing my youth
But I know what its like to seem wrong when youre right
Halleluiah Im down and its finally happening
