

The Departure, Be My Enemy

Would you be my enemy?
It's easier that way
Be my enemy

If you don't like what you hear
At least get something out of it
Come back to mine
We'll be separated
Oh we'll be
Living faster than I care to notice
Care to notice me

Would you be my enemy?
It's easier that way
Be my enemy
Would you be my enemy?
It's easier that way
Be my enemy

It's easier that way
It's easier that way

You could turn to laugh in my face
Or contest there's not a place for it
You don't care
You don't care
Didn't push those buttons right
This darkness seems so bright now

I cannot contain myself
Would you be my enemy?
It's easier that way
Be my enemy
Would you be my enemy?
It's easier that way
Be my enemy

It's easier that way
It's easier that way
