

The Derek Trucks Band, Days Is Almost Gone

Was a time when I was younger
I saw things get out of hand
Now I'm older in the story
I realize where I been
It's time I finally said

These days is almost gone
These days is almost gone
These days is almost gone
Don't be late, 'cause the sun won't wait

Takin' time and patience
To turn ourselves around
And baby it's just learning
To live with what we found
I love to hear the sound

When you wait too long
To get it right
Life can pass you by
The second chance
Could be your last
I'm reaching for the light
Yes I am

These days is almost gone
These days is almost gone
These days is almost gone
Don't be late, 'cause the sun won't wait
