The Dingees, Leave The Kids Alone

Constantly complain' bout our generation today Turn around and look you helped to make this way The less that you've been there the further they stray And won't believe the things you say

You gotta leave the kids alone You gotta leave the kids alone You're acting like a child but your lookin' fully grown You gotta leave the kids alone

Media been blast deeply thread in our lives Blowing all our minds causing us to decide Do we want what they got what they got is it good? Is it something to trust if we could

If you can't stay together if you can't stay together Then brother will raise brother and sister will teach sister
