

The Divine Comedy, Ten Seconds To Midnight

Ten

Apes turn into men and grapes turn into wine How we made it to nine I'll never know

Eight

Man looks for a mate
but fate plays cruel tricks And seven turns to six still he's alone

Along comes number five

Eureka I'm alive
I think therefore I am a lucky man

Three

From this balcony
the two of us can see The place where we first met one wet sunday
