The Dodos, Park Song

Woke up today a bit too late Put on my shoes and got some coffee Cranked out the tunes, I think it was Roxy Went back to snooze until 8:30

Went to the bar they say is the most Went by myself, but no one noticed Wonder if I looked like a tourist All that I could thing was "please don't blow this"

And we go, but they don't know us Goes to show we're not the same Keep it in, 'cause they don't know this Let it out, but not today

Went to the park today
Watched all the dogs as they played
None of them barked, they just hanged
Think I'll buy a dog when I get paid

Saw the girl I know from my job I think that she must think that I'm retarded I act so dumb when I get started Time to cut my hair and get it parted

And we go, but they don't know us Goes to show we're not the same Keep it in, 'cause they don't know this Let it out, but not today