

The Doobie Brothers, Feelin' Down Farther

Tom Johnston
Well, the sun is shinin'
A new day is here
All the people smilin'
And the sky is clear
Not an hour wasted will I share with you
Got to keep lovin', mama
No matter what I do

Ooh, ooh, ooh
I got to tell you
Feelin' down farther
Feelin' farther down
Feelin' down farther, baby
Feelin' farther down
Feelin' down farther
Feelin' farther down
Feelin' down farther, baby
Feelin' farther down

Jesus, hear me
When I sing out loud
The echoes of my gladness
Fall upon the crowd
I don't care for sadness
And I don't need fear
I hope they finally realize
That the feelin' is near

Ooh, ooh, ooh
I got to tell you
Feelin' down farther
Feelin' farther down
Feelin' down farther, baby
Feelin' farther down
Feelin' down farther
Feelin' farther down
Feelin' down farther, baby
Feelin' farther down

Givin' and receivin'
Are all I know
Some of you will find it
And you'll prob'bly let it show
Only one thing that I know to be true
Every day is different, mama
And so are you

Ooh, ooh, ooh
I got to tell you
Feelin' down farther
Feelin' farther down
Feelin' down farther, baby
Feelin' farther down
Feelin' down farther
Feelin' farther down
Feelin' down farther, baby
Feelin' farther down

Feelin' down farther
Feelin' farther down
Feelin' down farther, baby
Feelin' farther down
Feelin' down farther

Feelin' farther down
Feelin' down farther, baby
Feelin' farther down
