

The Doobie Brothers, Is Love Enough

J.L. Williams/W. Richmond

Too many nights
I've sat around and wondered
Where can my baby be
I can't explain this feelin'
How my heart's been reelin'
Or what's come over me

Ah but this much I know
If this is how it's gonna go
It's gonna be tough
Ain't no spell I'm under
It just makes me wonder
Is love enough

Is love enough to keep you happy
Is there a bottom line
And can there ever be
Anyone else for you but me
Is love enough to make you mine
I've gotta know

Is love enough, is love enough
Is love enough, I said is love enough

Don't get me wrong now woman
I'm not gonna drown in misery
If you don't want what I'm givin'
I'll go on livin'
Cause somewhere there's an angel for me

But I just can't tell
Is this heaven or hell
It sure is rough
So I'll ask you again
Please answer me friend
Is love enough

Is love enough to move this mountain
Cause the lord knows I've tried and tried
No matter how strong be the weather
Yeah we'll stick together
If love's enough to keep you satisfied
I've gotta know

Is love enough, is love enough
Is love enough, is love enough