

The Doobie Brothers, Thank You Love

Cornelius Bumpus

Why am I soaring high
Just one look and you touched my mind
I have heard of this thing
Now my heart can truly sing

Oh, love is here
Oh, what a feeling, love has set me free
Oh, love is here
You are the one, you are my destiny

You have shown me the way
Now I know love is here to stay
As the path opens wide
We clearly see love cannot hide

Oh, love is here
Oh, what a feeling, love has set me free
Oh, love is here
You are the one, you are my destiny

This is heaven, my dear
I've never seen love quite so clear
We will wander no more
Our hearts are one, let's close the door

Oh, love is here
Oh, what a feeling, love has set me free
Oh, love is here
You are the one, you are my destiny
