

The Doppler Effect, Beauty Hides In The Deep

Just before dawn comes Sadness is on
Just one more moment
And I am leaving
Few words on a small note
While you are asleep
I can only steal away
Thats how I tend to be
There are things I never get to say
The fear in me always in the way
A broken heart never mended
A hurt I can never forget
A little pearl
Locked in a shell
Can not explain
Each breath Im taking
Can not find the means to an end
To move create one liberated moment
Beauty hides in the deep
Beauty hides in the deep
But its so hard to find
Being wrapped up inside
I always wonder
Why dont I feel
What the world out there is like
And how I can fit in
I dont expect you to know me
Or how I lost all my dreams
When I cant even find myself
In the choices I made
I want you to know
Ill never forget you
I want you to know
Ill never forget you
