

The Draft, Na Na Na

I got all the time you need, so kick it off.
I made it through in just one piece, and that's good enough.
And I got all the time you need, whether or not you can believe
That the wait is finally through, just to get us...

Cause I got mine, it's true.

With bitter laughs I bring some news,
With better things for me and you.
With bitter laughs I bring some news,
That were loud, that were loud now.

Put the pieces back in place if they fall out.
Let your mind float into space if it wants out.
Cause you got all the time you need, take all you want cause it's free.
As of we, it's me and you, just to get us...

Cause I got mine, it's true.

With bitter laughs I bring some news,
With better things for me and you.
With bitter laughs I bring some news,
That were loud, that were loud now.

With bitter laughs I bring some news,
With better things for me and you.
With bitter laughs I bring some news,
That were loud.

With bitter laughs I bring some news,
With better things for me and you.
With bitter laughs I bring some news,
With better things for me and you.

With bitter laughs I bring some news, (With bitter laughs)
With better things for me and you. (With better things)
With bitter laughs I bring some news, (With bitter laughs)
With better things for me and you.
