

The Draft, Out Of Tune

Never said it's easy.
I never said it's better on your own.
I never said that you could make it last.
And there'll be time to be strong,
but maybe this just isn't one of them,
but you can bet that all of this will pass

I never tried to please you telling you that anyone belongs anywhere cause we never have but I never said we need to I never thought that really anyone ever gets to look back and laugh
But here's to jokes we never got and we never will.
We're out of tune.

We're telling jokes we never got and we never will.
So here's to jokes we never got and we never will.
We're out of tune.
