

The Dreams, Revolt

They say it's just a
Dream, dream
You're never gonna make it
Dream, dream
People try to break it
Dream
It's all a fake charade

We need to start a revolution
We ought to plan a revolution
We need an honest revolution now
Another pointless stupid TV show
Can't even listen to the radio
We're getting closer to our all time low

Gotta fight to believe
Gotta fight for your life
Gotta fight to believe in your heart tonight

They say it's just a
Dream, dream
You're never gonna make it
Dream, dream
People try to break it
Dream
It's all a fake charade

They say it's just a
Dream, dream
You're never gonna make it
Dream, dream
People try to break it
Dream
Always just believe
Always just believe

Don't need to label my passion
Where is my media assassin?
Look what you're feeding the teenage wasteland
Everybody's going to my funeral
Am I the only one alive in here?
Where is the renegade savior now?

They say it's just a
Dream, dream
You're never gonna make it
Dream, dream
People try to break it
Dream
It's all a fake charade

They say it's just a
Dream, dream
You're never gonna make it
Dream, dream
People try to break it
Dream
Always just believe

It's all a fake charade

They say it's just a
Dream, dream

You're never gonna make it
Dream, dream
People try to break it
Dream

They say it's just a
Dream, dream
Dream, dream
People try to break it
Dream

Someone always tries to break you down
Always just believe
