

The Drifters, Adorable

Adorable, dorable, dorable, dorable baby

You're adorable, sweet as can be
You're adorable, a dream girl to me
You're all that I hoped my love would ever be.

Adorable, dorable, dorable, dorable baby

You're so loveable, when you're in my arms,
You're so kissable, when I hold your charms
You're mine, you are so divine, my adorable one.

You must have come from heaven, because you thrill me so
My heaven starts at seven sharp
You start my heart to glow, glow, glow.

You're so huggable, so clinging, so nice,
You're excitable, when kissed once or twice
And soon you'll be mine alone, you adorable one.
