

The Echoing Green, Apology

"Apology"
(joey b. crissy j.)

take a moment
hear the sky
take notice
you fear a lie don't kill another dream tonight don't run from something you can't fight don't wait for sunshine in an endless night you'll be sorry...when I take a look at all the tears you cried I'm sorry...sorry

see the pain that hides behind your eyes
I'm sorry...sorry
see the sadness through your disguise it's so sorry...sorry hold on to it and I think you'll find that you're sorry...sorry now and so falls the rain it won't cleanse the stain you still the pain inside so don't kill another dream tonight

I'm sorry...sorry
see the pain that hides behind your eyes
I'm sorry...sorry
that you're sorry...as sorry as I

I'm so sorry.
