

The Effort, All This Time

you sang by my side, two words that kept me alive, two meanings you didn't know, and two words that helped me grow, words that helped me grow, into the person that i am today, showing what i know, i know i'm stronger than i was yesterday, and tomorrow i'll be here on behalf of what i love, and tomorrow i'm still here, it's the only thing i can be certain of,
and to think all this time i looked up to you, all this time
