

The Equals, Black Skin Blue Eyed Boys

People: white is white
What's black ain't clover

Together we'll be
When the war is over.
You see the Black Skin Blue Eyed Boys

They ain't gonna fight no wars
Oh
now.

Cool is school
But the teachers beat yer

When they see

That they can't reach yer.
You see the Black Skin Blue Eyed Boys

They ain't gonna fight no wars
Oh
now.

They ain't got no country

They ain't got no creed

People won't be black or white

The world will be half-breed.
The world will be half-breed.
The world will be half-breed.
You see the Black Skin Blue Eyed Boys

they ain't gonna fight no doggone wars.

They ain't got no country...

It's a brand new day

With brand new people

In one big world

We're just one people.
You see the Black Skin Blue Eyed Boys

They ain't gonna fight no wars. Oh
now.
Baby
you know that we hate fighting.
