

The Everly Brothers, Asleep

Asleep

please oh please let me fall asleep it's like heaven when I sleep until morning I forget her

I lie awake in my lonely bed in a room without a light Trying hard to find a dream that gets me through the night

But

sleep won't come it's never there since you're no longer mine and sleep is such a precious thing with your memory on my mind

Asleep

oh please let me fall asleep it's so peaceful when I sleep until morning nothing matters

Asleep

if I could only fall asleep
it's like heaven when I sleep
until morning I forget her

I hate to see the sun go down and face another night I watch the shadows climb the wall as they try to catch the light

Asleep

oh please let me fall asleep...

Asleep

if I could only fall asleep
it's like heaven when I sleep untill morning I forget her

Asleep
