

The Exies, Slow Drain

Yeah, I'm nameless, nameless
Love found me lost
But then I'm thankful, thankful righting the wrongs
Forgotten blessings, blessings down on my knees
My soul is endless, endless but
I'm so relieved and I'm so relieved and I'm so relieved

But if you must be concerned
I'm on a slow drain now
As you watch me burn
I'm on my way back down
If you must be concerned
I'm on a slow drain
As you watch me burn
Slow drain

Yeah I'm wasted, wasted end of my rope
But then I'm brain dead, brain dead
You make me choke
New Colic baby, baby kicks and it screams
My soul is endless, endless and
I'm so relieved and I'm so relieved and I'm so relieved

But if you must be concerned
I'm on a slow drain now
As you watch me burn
I'm on my way back down
If you must be concerned
I'm on a slow drain
As you watch me burn
Slow drain (x8)

But if you must be concerned
I'm on a slow drain now
As you watch me burn
I'm on my way back down
If you must be concerned
I'm on a slow drain now
As you watch me burn
Slow drain (x8)
