

The Exploited, No More Idols

No more idols no tine gods
Defy their corruption and spike their cogs
Rid your head of promised dreams
Banish all their fiendish schemes
NO MORE IDOLS NO TINE GODS
Wicked tongues still spew out lies
We never learn although we try
Brainwashed fools not quite dead
Dig their graves no tears are shed
The world is filled with poisoned minds
Plotters for power over all mankind
Hitler wasn't the first angel of greed
It was Adam and Eve who craved more than their needs
Fools are born everyday
They'll keep you like that if you let them have their way
No more idols no tin gods
Defy their corruption and spike their cogs
