

The Exploited, Was It Me

I've known you now
For the last twenty year or more
We fought for fun
We know the fucking score
I would have done
Anything at all for you
You're my best friend
Why can't you see
[Chorus]
You never told me
What we fell out about
Was it me
Was it me
I can't believe
All the things you wrote to me
I can't take in
The things you said to me
I thought you would
Have done anything for me
We were best friends
Why can't you see
[Chorus]
You never told me
What we fell out about
Was it me
Was it me
I've known you now
For the last twenty year or more
We seen it all
You know the fucking score
I would have done anything at all for you
You're my best friend
Honestly
