

The Explosion, Here I Am

There's poison in the boys in blue
There's poison in the boys in blue
Corruption, greed and feud are all I see
You're in a disarray
Things used to be a different way
Whatever happened to the golden age
It's gone yeah it's gone away
So don't ever turn your back again
(one false move and we're all dead)

Here I am [3x]
I'm back at the crossroads again
Let me stand [3x]
On top of the mountain again

There's movement in the distance
Gunshots are all I hear
This petty resistance is all I see
I want to walk away
Remember better days
We watch the death of something beautiful
It's gone yeah it's gone away
So don't ever turn your back again
(one false move and we're all dead)

[Chorus]

When we find a problem
We never look back and say
One chance, one moment
It's gone so easily

[Chorus]
