

The Faint, As The Doctor Talks

All the doctor talk
Of all the doctor trouble
All the time paid off
But there's a night to remember, when the quarters stopped
Diving in the cup
Doctor back to work stumbling through the hall
He made it to a room
A lady old and calloused
Is staring back at him
He doesn't think that she notices

As the Doctor talked
His slurring causes trouble
They breath a bit of breath
Once the surgery's over
Hey Daniel Eckerson
Where's your sadness
Your apathy has mothers crying

But it's nothing 'til it comes to a court who finds a hole in the defense
He stays when the cannot prove beyond a doubt
A word of what was said

And the Doctor choked
His hearing started monday
All his time ran out
Since the media ran it
Hey Daniel Eckerson
Where's your sadness
Your apathy has left a knife in her gut.

And it's nothing 'til it comes to a court who finds a hole in the defense
He stays when the cannot prove beyond a doubt
A word of what was said
