

The Faint, Phone Call

I've seen you a while now
Long enough to be close
There's some things about you
That I should know, I still don't
With all the questions we didn't ask
Our conversations could never last
Our moments alone were scarce and few
It was just easier to hide the truth

If all of our secrets were exposed
Would we be sharing the same bed?
How about if I broke the silence first
Did I hear what you're thinking in your head?
I need to be talked to
I need to be touched
I need you to hold me
I need to feel love
And if I could open up to you
Maybe I could open you up

But instead I got the phone call
Just thought I'd call to let you know
I want to be alone all night again
The phone call
Just thought I'd call to let you know
I want to be alone all night again

With all of the questions we didn't ask
Our conversations could never last
I need to be talked to
I need to be touched
I need you to hold me
I need to feel love
And if I could open up to you
Maybe you could open up to me
We do all the things that lovers do
I've been meaning to tell you how I feel

But instead I got the phone call
Just thought I'd call to let you know
I want to be alone all night again
The phone call
Just thought I'd call to let you know
I want to be alone all night again
