Chisellers

Dry hump, in the hip club

I try to think like you do
Act like you do
Try to dress like you do
I thought I was you

Now you turn around
Point your finger at me
Say I'm Chilinist
You think I'm the pits

The chisellers are here
And when they appear
You know I'll disappear again
The chisellers are there
And everywhere
And now I'll never come here again

I think like you do
I act like you do

I thought I was you

I need no persuasion
You know what to say
The process is clear
You are not happy

I try to think like you do
Dress like you do
I thought I was you

Chiseler!
