

The Fall Of Troy, Caught Up

Too done up, I've said too much,
It always seems like I do.
All because people don't learn,
They'd much rather teach the truth.
Better kept secret,
Waiting on a better day.
When everything is self-destructive,
I can't explain myself anyway.
So I'll make my apologies.
Just as soon as you turn away,
It's as bad as bad can get.
Is anyone listening?
Better kept secret,
Waiting on a better day.
When everything is self-destructive,
I can't explain myself anyway.
If I could, you know I would,
Hypocrisy that's understood.
It's meaningless at best,
Nothing's making sense.
Here right now I'll put this down,
To pull you in and hear the sound.
A living silhouette with nothing to give back.
I'm caught up...
