

The Features, I Will Wander

Send in the angels, send in the team
There's a fire on the mountain, fire in my jeans
It's the right time for leaving, right time to leave
Gonna write you a letter that is unfit to read

I will wander, I will wander
I will wander, I will wander

Call on the agents, call on
Put your gods in position
I know what you're thinking
When you stare at the ceiling, deciding who to choose

I will wander, I will wander
I will wander, I will wander

Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh

Send in the angels, send in the team
I will wander, I will wander
There's a fire on the mountain, fire in my jeans
I will wander, I will wander
It's the right time for leaving, right time to leave
I will wander, I will wander
Gonna write you a letter that is unfit to read
I will wander, I will wander
