

The Features, The Way It's Meant To Be

Little fingers, little toes
Little tempers that come and go
It's the little things that matter most
Like the monograms on your clothes

Gonna stand right by your side
Wipe your nose and dry your eyes
Zip your dress and tie your shoes
There's nothing i won't do
Gonna love you 'til i die
'Cause I'm yours and you are mine

And that's the way it's meant to be

Oh, call a doctor, call a king
Someone should witness all the joy that you bring
Oh, my love, you're such a beautiful sight
Just wanna hold you and squeeze you tight

Gonna take you by the hand
Try to make you understand
Take you everywhere i go
Teach you everything i know
We can laugh until we cry
'Cause i'm yours and you are mine

And that's the way it's meant to be
One happy accident, two little rays of light
Long as you're with me
Everything is alllllll right

Gonna tuck you in tonight
Fall asleep right by your side
Take a swift kick in the head
Let you push me out of bed
Steal the cover, i don't mind
'Cause i'm yours and you are mine

And that's the way it's meant to be
And that's the way it's meant to be
