

The Finalist, Leave the Broken Hearts

another night, another episode that makes me feel just right and i can't see through this bottle to save my life
i'm lost

there's nowhere to go
and i can't trust you
as far as i throw
this time i realize
ref.

the look in your eyes
won't let me down
let's leave here, tonight
let's leave this town
leave those broken
hearts behind...

i swear it will be right
it will be right this time the past is gone
so, take those memories
and burn them to the ground while the opportunity
is still around

i pick myself up
off the street
i never thought it
would be open to me
don't ever second guess it
ref.

won't let me down
hearts behind...

as i take this gun
i knock down these walls
i paint her name in red with the last words
she said...

that girl threw me overboard as i say 'bring me back again' oh, lifter of my head
bring me back...
bring me back, again
ref.

hearts behind...
