

The Finalist, Rain

Started running never looked back
I'll never see your face again
Did you think i would fall for it this time
And for this i'm What do you take me for?
Some kind of mindless fool
Remember i'm not the one who changed
It was you ref.

RAIN is coming down
It falls in my direction
THIS has broken me
I'm not what you expected
I know this love has come to take me home
i know i'll never be alone again
I woke up to realize
When i find true love its few and far between Look into my eyes and tell me what you see.
A world of possibility
I'M NOT WHO U WANT ME TO BE
ref.

RAIN is coming down
It falls in my direction
THIS has broken me
I'm not what you expected
i know i'll never be alone again
uhhhhaoooooh
uhhhhaoooooh
Rain will fall
Rain will fall
Rain is coming down
Rain is coming down
Rain is coming down, it falls Down On Meeeee
ref.

RAIN is coming down
It falls in my direction
THIS has broken me
I'm not what you expected
I know this love has come to take me home
i know i'll never be alonnnne again
Started running never looked back
I'll never see your face again
Started running never looked back
I'll never see your face
I know this love has come to take me home
I know i'll never be alonnnne again
I know i'll never see your face
I'll never see your face again
I know i'll never see your face
I know i'll never see your face
I know i'll never see your face
