

The Firm, Midnight Moonlight

She flies through the night on silver wings with a smile, no obligation.
She says 'walk with me, I'll take you down through the storm to your destination'.
She says 'hold me now, I'll take you there to the dawning of a new creation'.
Midnight Moonlight Lady
But on the wing she is flying to greet me.
But on the wing she is flying to meet me.

The night is waiting, she must know how I feel.
In the neon darkness, she is all that is real.
I know it must be a dream.
Will she be gone tomorrow?
But tonight the world is still and I can feel no sorrow. (repeat)
Midnight Moonlight Lady.
But on the wing she is flying to greet me.
But on the wing she is flying to meet me.

She says 'take from this wilderness, I want to be where I won't be lonely'.
'Take me from this wilderness, I want to be where I can see'.
'Take me from this wilderness, I want to be where I can see'.

See the shadows dancing in the moonlight in her eyes.
See a vision forming and it comes as no surprise.
Could it be a warning that ????? ????? before it dies?
See the shadows dancing in the moonlight in her eyes.
See a vision forming and it comes as no surprise.
Could it be a warning that ????? ????? before it satisfies?

She keeps her secrets with her eyes, like the moon behind a silver cloud.
She holds my memory with her smile. Am I dreaming now, spinning 'round?
Let her take it all away.
Everytime I turn around, I know she is there.
Everytime I turn around she's everywhere.
Midnight Moonlight Lady (repeat)
Come on shine your light on me baby!
I want you to learn the secrets of the night.
???? ???? ???? ???? ???? ????
Show me the secrets of the night.
Midnight Moonlight Lady

But on the wing she is flying to meet me.
