

The Forecast, Sleep Tight Tonight

sleeping in i'll begin again to shed this skin and be born again we'll drink to forget and drink to forgive we'll rethink our futures i cant remember what he said when he left my bed and left my life last night but ill be thinking about you ill be thinking about so stay if you can, wont you stay if you can and lead me to your promised land fall in, fit in, the broken hearts club dance
