

The Fray, It's For You

when the winds come and they blow when the rains turn to sleet and snow when the waters rage at the sea bitter cold but you warm me its for you I walk through a storm its for you I lay me down there is nothing that I wouldnt do for you when you call Ill be right there ill turn my world right around for you dont you see, dont you see Im here only for you I walk through a storm only for you I lay me down
