

The Friday Night Boys, There's Still Time

If you know, just what youre doing
Sorry I couldnt get you through this
You want to know if this could work out somehow (I could care less about you now)
In too deep, but only friends
She said Id steal her heart again
She wants to know if its alright
If she were here with me tonight
Theres still time to know just what youre missing
Youre not that convincing now
Tell me how it felt
When your boyfriends wondering
Just what youre doing with me
You wouldnt have the guts to kiss me now
Tell me how it felt
When your boyfriends wondering where you are Another night, whats ahead, passed out face down on my bed
Without you
She calls but I ignore the phone
Its true Id rather be alone
You turn around, but never leave you always come back to me every other night, left alone in your room
Where you gonna go
Cuz I know youre not that innocent now
How you gonna know
If he was right from the start
You cant get over this, I know youve been thinking
I can handle it
