

The Gathering, All you are

I sit scared
your eyes blend into me
and then i take in the room Dark and cold you are atmosphere
I wonder who you are where are you from?
And I watch
all that you are I want to hide
how did I end up here alone?
I sit scared
i dart my eyes about pretending I don't care
Time and place I embrace the sanity
I'm wondering why am I still here?
