

The GazzettE, Silly god disco

It is cheesed with power and the morality of which it goes mad
A lot of people became dogs having tied to the chain
Your happy there?
I want to be enjoying the life though it will knock against a high wall hereafter
I'm already dead however I was saved with the rock
I swore I at that time. I will walk life that shines highest
There is no fear. It gets it over though there is a painful day too
Now let's go. The wing expands and goes to look for freedom and the glory
The world that extends to the place waits surely for you odoranai ka? Real Cinderella kizu darake no GARASU no MAACHIN de
