

The Georgia Satellites, Deep In The Heart Of Dix

The "No Smoking" light's on
The Captain comes on the phone
If we start to fall, it won't bother me at all
Just plant my bones deep in the heart of Dixie, yeah

Well Otis, James and Rufus is where they ought to be Dancing down in Memphis Tennessee
I just want to be deep in the heart of Dixie

I said, falling from the sky in this seven forty-seven
Drinking Manhattans all night
Have you seen Atlanta from 30,000 feet?
Well I ain't never seen such, seen such a sight

Well I've been to Berlin, Rome, and Paris, L.A.
There's just one place that I want to stay
Man that's deep in the heart, I'm in the heart of Dixie

Oh just like old John Lee. Yes sir

Well I've been to Berlin, Rome, and Paris, L.A.
Man that's deep in the heart, I'm in the heart of Dixie

I said she's deep in my heart, I'm in the heart of Dixie

Yeah that's right, break 'em up.
