The Go-Go's, Fading Fast

You thought that I was on your side And I'd do anything for you But you found out yesterday That you were wrong I opened up the door I said we were through

Now you're calling me You want me back again But I've just got to turn my head And start to pretend

I've never seen you You're someone I don't know Are you just another boy That I met long ago

You had me all to yourself I thought that you were such a prize I finally came to my senses When I heard just one too many lies

You can talk about old times They don't mean a thing to me You're fading fast Out of my memory
