

The Go Set, Wandering Man

Tired eyes, as he looks into his glass
Tattoos on his skin that tell stories of the past
Can't see the memories, trapped inside his mind
Can't see the tale untold, that he's left behind
He's such a long way from home
Got such a long way to go
Wandering man you are never far from home,
Wandering man, let's drink until the dawn
Wandering man, a new home you have found,
Wandering man, let's go another, go another round
A million miles, on a ship upon the sea
He's seen it all, and tasted everything
Now a woman waits for him to come home,
Tired eyes and tired minds end up alone
He's such a long way from home
Got such a long way to go
