

The Goo Goo Dolls, Disconnected

I don't remember it doesn't ring a bell and when you call me everything is swell I tend to forget about the times we had and now it doesn't matter cuz I feel so sad Cause, I've been disconnected someone pulled the plug oh you're so distant won't you come along....yeah

We've paid the price and now we're both alone and if you call me you'll find me home I found another someone to take your place now if you don't mind just get out of my face
