The Good, The Bad and The Queen, History Son

Come the day You see the sun Hit the arch A history song If you don't know it now then you will do If you don't know it now then you will do A ship across The estuary Sundays lost In melancholy If you don't know it now then you will do If you don't know it now then you will do A storm of strings Far away The hangers on Saved the day If you don't know it now then you will do If you don't know it now then you will do And if you don't feel it now then you will do And if you don't feel it now then you will do La la