The Grateful Dead, I Need A Miracle

I need a woman 'bout twice my age A lady of nobility, gentility and rage Splendor in the dark, lightning on the draw We'll go right through the book and break each and every law.

I got a feeling and it won't go away, oh no Just one thing then I'll be OK I need a miracle every day.

I need a woman 'bout twice my height Statuesque, raven-dressed, a goddess of the night. Her secret incantations, a candle burning blue We'll consult the spirits maybe they'll know what to do.

And it's real and it won't go away, oh no I can't get around and I can't run away I need a miracle every day.

I need a woman 'bout twice my weight A ton of fun who packs a gun with all her freight Find her in a sideshow leave her in L.A. Ride her like a surfer running on a tidal wave.

And it's real, believe what I say, yeah Just one thing I got to say I need a miracle every day.

It takes dynamite to get me up
Too much of everything is just enough
One more thing I just got to say
I need a miracle every day,
I need a miracle every day,
I need a miracle every day, (got to be the only way)
I need a miracle
