

The Guess Who, Moan For You Joe

I told you long ago
To stop comin' round
Your drinking and your gambling
Are a constant down
You're mock educated
And you're mock well read
Your mouth keeps moving
Not a word gets said

And it drags me down
To see you mess yourself this way
And I moan for you
Watching you every day.
&lt;/lyrics&gt;
