

The Hellcopters, Soulseller

Look out now when I come your way
I'm a dog & I'm astray
I've been taught but I won't learn
Been out of luck but baby it will turn
So I sold my soul again
I can't turn back 'cuz its the place
I put my damn self in
And I will sell my soul to you
What I need has long been overdue

Blast my way with raging speed
Beelzebub gimme what I need
Don't wanna wait to what comes around
Gotta hear it now I gotta grab that sound

I call it gold some call it vile
But to place my bets on consolation prices
Just ain't my style
I've gotta get sixsixsix I've gotta go
Won't you burn with me when I make that show
