

The Hold Steady, Don't Let Me Explode

he said what about los angeles. she said we never really made it that far west. we scored big in de he said what about new orleans. she said i don't think you understand what that means. all those h we didn't go to dallas. 'cause jackie onassis said that it ain't safe for catholics yet. think about what saint barbara i'm calling your name. don't let me blow up. we'll hook it all up. i guess there's fields o saint barbara don't let me explode. i can feel the whole scene starting to corrode when we're fooling he asked what happened to charlemagne. she just smiled all polite-like and said something vague.