

The Hollies, Crusader

(Clarke / Hicks / Nash)

All is dark
The moat is dry
Shadows fall
The roof lets in the sky
All these memories
Go round in my head
Of the life I have led

Minstrels play
Familiar melodies
And once more
The past comes back to me
All these memories
Go round in my head
Of the life I have led

The grass has grown much taller now
Over running everything
Oh, oh, since I've been gone

The grass has grown much taller now
Over running everything
Oh, oh, what have I done

Break

The grass has grown much taller now
Over running everything
Oh, oh, since I've been gone

The grass has grown much taller now
Over running everything
Oh, oh, since I've been gone

All is dark
The moat is dry
Shadows fall
The roof lets in the sky
All these memories
Go round in my head
