

The Hollies, Survival Of The Fittest

(Clarke / Hicks / Nash)

Give her a hand 'cos she gave a good show
Her makeup was right for the occasion
She did what she had to do, she said what she had to say
She played her part to perfection

She's so empty inside, lies to herself and the public
She's so empty inside, lies to herself and the public acclaim's not the same such a shame

The star of the show she was true to herself and everything went as reported Rumours about herself came along That's when it all got distorted

chorus

What a good show she gave Happy to go on the stage
Was she to know it would change
Can she go on feeling strange
