

The Honorary Title, Radiate

Let's leave this urban territory.
Won't settle less
Our children could be so much better off sacrificed than lost Just 200 miles out east Smothering the sun's evening glare dispersing the colours as I stare
the rays that will spread and spray from out only in between in my hands only in between radiate radiate radiate not only for radiate radiate radiate not only for you not only for you
If I could be as strong as my father was with us then There's no reason to doubt resentment is out, Absolutely out of the question
Smothering the sun's evening glare
dispersing the colours as I stare
The rays that will spread and spray from out in between in my hands
only in between
Radiate, radiate, radiate, not only for Radiate, radiate, radiate, not only This life we have chosen's eating you up from the inside
I'm not asking
I am begging
Why won't you realise?
say it in your own way
I know you wish we had stayed
say it in your own way
I know you wish we had stayed
Radiate, radiate, radiate, not only for
Radiate, radiate, radiate, not only for you