

The Human League, Filling Up With Heaven

Once there was a vision
Once there was a glow
Once there was a certainty
No chance could overthrow Hope was scorched by summer
Crushed and beaten down
Once there was a winner
Now there was a clown
Without you life had seemed so
But now I'm

Filling up with Heaven
Without you life had
seemed so hostile
Filling up with Heaven
But maybe with you it's all worthwhile
Now I'm filling up with Heaven

No baby no baby no baby no
Filling up
No baby no baby baby baby no
Filling up
No baby no baby no baby no
No baby no baby baby baby no

All the fortune that my luck had brought
It couldn't even make me smile
Without you life had seemed so
A lonely hideaway my last resort
All achievement infantile

Now I'm
Filling up with Heaven
Without you life had
seemed so hostile
Filling up with Heaven
But maybe with you it's all worthwhile
Hey hey hey

As the years had passed by
I became more cynical
All the magic had died
My existence clinical Ow ow ow ow

But now I'm Filling up with Heaven
Down down
Down down
Filling up

Without you life had
seemed so hostile
Down down
Down down
Hey hey hey hey
Filling up with Heaven
But maybe with you it's all worthwhile
Woah woah woah woah

Now I'm
Without you life had

seemed so hostile
Down down
Down down
Filling up filling up
Filling up with Heaven
But maybe with you it's all worthwhile
Ow ow ow ow ow Woah woah woah

Now I'm
hostile
Down down
Down down
Filling up with Heaven
But maybe with you it's all worthwhile
Hey hey hey hey

Without you life had
seemed so hostile
Down down
Down down
Filling up
But maybe with you it's all worthwhile
